Novena in honor of the

SACRED HEART of JESUS and IMMACULATE HEART of MARY

May 31-June 8, 2024

If you are not able to attend Mass daily during the Novena, you may participate fully by:

1. Making a Spiritual Communion each day,
and
2. By praying the Novena Prayer and the Rosary each day.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

NOVENA PRAYER

Eternal Father, look not on our sins, but upon the infinite love and merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Look upon the sufferings He endured on our behalf causing His Precious Blood to flow for the remission of sin. By His infinite merits, and the intercession of Mary, His Mother, grant us the graces we most need, and the favors we ask in this Novena. O Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of Heaven and earth, I thank you for the many blessings I have received through your powerful intercession. Guide me in dangers, strengthen me in temptations, and help me to bear the crosses of life in union with your Son. Mother of Mercy, I beseech you to hear my prayer, and to obtain for me of your Divine Son the favors I seek in this Novena. (Here make your requests)

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petition, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. (Add your daily Rosary)

Saint Boniface (675 A.D.—754 A.D.)

June 5

St. Boniface was very bold in his faith and was well known for being very good at using the local customs and culture of the day to bring people to Christ. He was born in Devonshire, England, in the seventh century. He was educated at a Benedictine monastery and became a monk, and was sent as a missionary to Germany in 719 instead of becoming abbot for his monastery.

There, he destroyed idols and pagan temples, and built churches on the sites. He was eventually made archbishop of Mainz, where he reformed churches and built religious houses on those sites.

He was martyred on June 5, 754 while on mission in Holland, where a troop of pagans attacked and killed him and his 52 companions.

One story about St. Boniface tells about when he met a tribe in Saxony that was worshipping a Norse deity in the form of a huge oak tree. Boniface walked up to the tree, removed his shirt, took an ax, and without a word, chopped it down. Then he stood on the trunk, and asked: "How stands your mighty god? My God is stronger than he."
