How do we convert our noble desire to serve Our Lord and those around us?

We don't have to wait for a special occasion to serve. Daily life gives us many opportunities to serve from the most material to the most spiritual.

- carrying out your work with a spirit of service
- helping at home with the household chores, or other people with a smile, making life pleasant for others
- praying for the holiness, fidelity and apostolic zeal of all Catholics; for their conversion, for vocations, in reparation for sins
- apologizing and forgiving
- attending to the sick or to people who are in need
- listening with patience to your spouse
- giving good example
- being available for whatever is needed at home, in the parish etc... and the list goes on.

May the Virgin Mary, “Ancilla Domini” (Handmaid of the Lord), help us in our resolve to grow daily in the spirit of service for love of God and the good of many souls.

May we know how to put ourselves “out cheerfully, discreetly and generously each day, serving others and making their lives more pleasant. To act in this way is to practise the true charity of Jesus Christ.

Note: Choir practice will be Tuesday October 22nd at 7:30 p.m
